

Course Outcome (B.A. I, II, III) English

- To develop intellectual, personal and professional abilities through effective communication skill.
- To develop morality and character among the students.
- To develop interest towards history and culture of our country.
- To ensure high standards of behavioral attitude through different forms of literature as prose, poetry, drama and fiction.
- To make students aware about the other forms of literatures, especially poetry: sonnet, ode, elegy, epic, ballad, lyric and dramatic monologue.

Course Specific Outcome

- On successful completion of course the students will be accurate both in oral and written communication.
- To develop understanding about the heritage of our country.
- The students can express a thorough command of English.

- They can apply critical frameworks to analyze historical background of texts written in English.
- The students will be familiar with the conventions of diverse textual genres. including fiction, non-fiction, autobiography, biography, journals, plays, poetry and so on.

Programme Outcome (M.A. I & II) English

- To develop ability to read and analyze text.
- To develop ability to read any unfamiliar literary and non-literary texts also.
- Instill a critical perspective with which students approach the disciplines.
- To encourage the students to take part in academic programmes as: learned lectures, debate, English essay competition and seminars.
- Enhance critical thinking of students.
- To cultivate language and communication skills of the students.

Programme Specific Outcome

- Ability to retain and build on critical reading skills.

- To develop humanistic approach and to know about humanism.
- Ability to transfer humanistic approach in other domains of life and works.
- Literature and society are closely related to each other so the programme shall definitely help the learners to tackle the practical problems in their lives with critical reasoning and a broader outlook.
- To study different movements, the different ages of literature from Geoffrey Chaucer to T. S. Eliot and study American Literature as an elective paper.
- All the movements shall contribute towards the learner's development in the domain of knowledge.