About Seminar:

In the ancient Indian Society women enjoyed all sorts of freedom and, infact, they were worshipped. Women were treated as the expression of Maa Durga. With the passes of times there has been radical changes in the status and position of women after independence. The present Indian Constitution guaranties perfect equality between men and women. The recent judgement of Supreme Court confirms the same point of view that men and women are equal partners in the struggle of life.

In the Context of above analysis the following panels have been suggested for the discussion.

1. The status and position of women in ancient Indian society.
2. The status and position of women in present scenario.
3. Social acceptance regarding equality of women in present Indian society.
4. Awareness of Indian women for participation in different fields of activity in the present time.
5. Indian women and Constitution of India.
6. The future of women empowerment in the context of Indian society.
7. The Indian women in the context of Globalization.

Venue of Seminar:

The Venue is M.L.K.(P.G.) College, Balrampur (U.P.). The College was accredited by NAAC Grade 'A' from 2011 to 2015. The College was established by Maharaja Sir Pateshwari Prasad Singh in the year 1955 and is more popularly known as Oxford of Tarai. The College is situated at a distance of 165 km. in the East from Lucknow & 189 km. from Gorakhpur. Direct Trains are available to reach Balrampur from any corner of India. The College is situated in the heart of city at distance 03 Km. from Balrampur Railway Station and 01 Km. from Jharkhandi Halt (Station).

वर्तमान परिपेक्ष्य में नारी सशक्तिकरण

सम्पादक

डॉ० आशीष कुमार लाल

पुस्तक के बारे में

प्राचीन भारतीय समाज में महिलाओं ने स्वतंत्रता के सभी प्रकार का आनंद लिया और वास्तव में, उनकी पूजा की गई। महिलाओं को मां दुर्गा की अभिव्यक्ति के रूप में माना जाता था। आजादी के बाद महिलाओं की स्थिति काफी उतार चढ़ाव वाली रही है। वर्तमान भारतीय संविधान पुरुषों और महिलाओं के बीच पूर्ण समानता की गारंटी देता है। सुप्रीम कोर्ट के हालिया फैसले ने एक ही दृष्टिकोण की पुष्टि की है कि जीवन और संघर्ष के संघर्ष में पुरुष और महिला समान भागीदार हैं। फिर भी समाज के नजरिये और हाशिए पर खड़ी आम महिलाओं के अधिकारों की विवेचना की जरूरत है। इस पुस्तक में उन तमाम शिक्षाविदों के नजरिये को स्थान दिया गया है जिनका समाज में प्रतिष्ठित स्थान है और जो समाज की रचना में एक विशेष योगदान रखते हैं।

Findings of Seminar on

“Women Empowerment in Present Scenario”

( 22nd and 23rd December 2018)

Organised by IQAC and Arts Faculty,

M.L.K. P.G. College, Balrampur

In association with Women Welfare Department, Balrampur

(A Unit of U.P. Govt.)

The status and position of Indian women was very high in the ancient Indian society. Two thousand years back when India became a prey of foreign invasions (The Greeks, The Mughals and The Britishers), our Indian society started receiving the cultural values of the Greeks, the Mughals and the Britishers. As a result of it the status and position of Indian women came to a process of serious degeneration.

In the present scenario the process of degeneration has come to an alarming situation and the Indian women community has totally deviated from the values of ancient Indian culture. It would not be a mistake to say that in present scenario, the condition of Indian women has become miserable.

The chief guest of the inaugural function of the seminar, Prof. Surendra Dubey, Vice Chancellor, Siddhartha University Kapilvastu, Siddhartha Nagar (U.P.) said that we cannot ignore the position of women in our society. He further stated that our society needs a very positive and sympathetic attitude towards entire women community for their betterment.

In the Keynote Address of seminar Prof. Ashish Saxena, Head, Dept. of Sociology, Allahabad University, Prayagraj (U.P.) said that women are not irrelevant in their position and status but they are much more powerful with regards in their rights given by our political system and social structure. #MeToo campaign is very much relevant example for their upliftment and for enhancing the position and status of women in the modern society.

Other Findings of the Seminar are –

1. We cannot ignore the position and status of women in our society. They are very much strong by the power given by our constitution and our progressive society. 21st century is the century of women and we have to accept it and to support it. In this session Mr. Paltu Ram (MLA Balrampur) expressed his views very impressively and said that Indian women were not only decision makers but homemakers also.
2. Our society is a developing society and without development of the status and position of our Indian women we cannot fight against our basic social problems.
3. The total picture of women empowerment in present scenario is quite hopeful, in spite of so many terrible drawbacks, is becoming brighter. It should be maintained and strengthened.
4. Every woman on earth is the expression of goddess Durga and as such she is the crown of the whole creation. She needs no power from outside but rather is the source of all power. We have to look at her spiritually after removing the layers of ignorance alien social values of the invaders.
5. Financial empowerment is the most important aspect to improve the status of Indian women. The government has started a few initiatives that should be broadened by all stakeholders of the society.
